

Workshop on teaching, evaluation

From Our Correspondent
GORESWAR, Nov 1 — A workshop on "Teaching and evaluation" (commerce faculty), under the aegis of the Academic Council, Guwahati was held at K C Das, Commerce College recently.

The workshop was aimed at having suggestions, guidance and opinion on the subject from senior and experienced teachers of the Departments of Accountancy, Management and Commerce.

Sri Hitesh Deka, Principal, i/c K C Das Commerce College, delivered his welcome address. Sri Jatindra Chandra Nath, Ex-principal, J N College, Boko inaugurated it.

Prof S K Dey, former Head, Deptt of Accountancy, Gauhati Commerce College, was honoured by the Academic Council of the College.

Two technical sessions were held on the occasion. Professors of various Deptts of Gauhati Commerce College participated as resource persons.

Seminar : K C Das Commerce College will organise a seminar on the topic, "Commerce Education and job market" in the college on November 11.

Meanwhile, Sri Bijoy Kalita, lecturer, Accountancy Deptt, K C Das Commerce College, Chatribari, urged the faculty members of Commerce to delegate at least two teachers from their respective commerce colleges for participation in the seminar.

Ambulance service : Ambulance service is being introduced in Baihata Chariali area.

The Baihata Chariali Development and Distressed Relief Fund, Baihata Chariali, will, in the meanwhile, assist in the project meant for the suffering people of the locality. The project will require more than Rs 2 lakh to materialise.

Sri Madan Chandra Deka and Sri Bipin Das, President and Secretary, Relief Fund sought public co-operation and dedication in this regard.

It may be mentioned here that about Rs 1,60,000 had been already spent by the Relief Fund for allround development of Baihata Chariali and for rendering medical and financial assistance to the talented of the poorest of the poor. It also constructed a public sanitary system. A public stage is now under construction at Baihata Chariali.

The ASSAM TRIBUNE

2nd Nov. 99.